

The American Democratic way is for communication systems to present material for all candidates, not promote the facts of one political party.

Is media consolidation hastening an end to America as it was developed in the 1700's? Have we totally lost the strength of our country?

Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest. To do otherwise, creates the need for greater mandates.

Thank you. Christine R. Savalla